Where Is My Moon?

Sivert HÃ¸yem

Hold on my enemy
If you got it in for me
It's just fog and fantasy
We'll come to some understanding

(Chorus)

I'm going to make this my own moon landing
I'm going to give this the best that I've got
You see right from the start we've been drifting apart
It's our actual standing
I'm going to make this my own...

I don't need no enemy
To keep me awake at night
No one's gonna go for free
We'll travel very light

For now I've had enough from you
I'm done and so are you
Go see what you can do
The universe is expanding

(Chorus)

I don't need no enemy
To wake me in the night
No one's gonna go for free
We'll travel very light

For now I've had enough from you
I'm done and so are you
Go see what you can do
The universe is expanding
The silence is commanding...
