Slip To The Void

Alter Bridge

To the dark
To the fall
Crawl to the life you shouldn't know
You should never come this way
To test the hands of fate
You don't belong herePeel back the skin
Close your eyes
Hell is born
To the abyss, but be warned
You fear what you've become
My God what have you done?
You don't belong hereBut it's all in the way
You touch and you will pay
DenialBut it's all in the way
You touch and you will pay
DenialSever the ties
Trip the wire
Take your hold
Doubt is alive and you know
You were once led to believe
You were young and so naive
And now no longer
But it's all in the way
You turn your back todayLeft to face this alone
Left to die with nothing you can own
In the void that you made
The moment you let love goTry win back your days
You let them all escape your heart
Now that you've come so far
Why did you have to fall so hard?
Look at what you've done
What have you become?Left to face this alone
In the void that you made
The moment you let love go
You let love go
You let love go

You let love go
