

Man of Sorrows

Wolves At The Gate

Blistered feet, bloodied alone
Walked the streets a man unknown
 Battered face as He adorns
A mocker's robe, a crown of thorns
 A tree designed for His demise
 Cursed, maligned by guilty cries
The nails and hammer they did meet
 Two in the hands, one in the feet
 Risen up, put on display
For a guilty mob to scream and say
 Crucify! Crucify!
 The people yelled to crucify
 He must die! He must die!
Without a fight He did comply I do not know the pain you felt
 Or lowly service as You knelt
Down before such lowly men You served (and washed their feet)
 Who is this man they sent to die?
 Many still could not reply
Betrayed and sold by His very own (with a kiss)
 He met the needs of thousands fed
 Healed the sick and raised the dead
My God! My God! The man did say
 Have you forsaken me this day?
 Bleeding, dying; words were few
 Forgive them Lord for what they do
 Gasping breath they heard Him say
It is finished! Laid below the ground You knew it couldn't hold You
 They thought that You were bound by nature's laws
 He is risen! He is risen!
For the veil that was torn in two and the darkness that would ensue
 A symbol alas that the debt was finally paid
When the stone it was rolled away, He was no longer where He lay
Surely our King had risen from the dead On and on and on we're singing
 Singing out for all to hear us This is not a simple story
 Our lives are for Your glory
 Beyond my words and written pages
 Your song across the ages
