Tossin' and Turnin'

Kyle Park

Its 4am and its the same ole thang
I havent had one bit of sleep
But somehow ive been dreamin about you all night, wonderin where you could be
This King sized bed where we used to lay,
Feels just as empmty as my heart theese days

Im tossin and turnin in the process of learnin
How to put out this burnin fire,
Im so tired of not getting any sleep
I keep on thinking that your gunna come back to me
But still im so afriad that if im not awake
Im not gunna see you commin back to me
And thats why I cant sleep

Ive stared at this celling lored knows how many times
Just to get up and walk the floor
Ive covered the windows and broken all the lights
But im still just as lonley as before
Ive laid on my back and ive laid on my side
But what good dose it do for all the tears ive cried

Im tossin and turnin in the process of learnin
How to put out this burnin fire,
Im so tired of not getting any sleep
I keep on thinking that your gunna come back to me
But still im so afriad that if im not awake
Im not gunna see you commin back to me
And thats why I cnt sleep

Im tossin and turnin in the process of learnin
How to put out this burnin fire,
Im so tired of not getting any sleep
I keep on thinking that your gunna come back to me
But still im so afriad that if im not awake
Im not gunna see you commin back to me
And thats why

Im so tired of not getting any sleep
I keep on thinking that your gunna come back to me
But still im so afriad if im not awake

Im not gunna see you commin back to me
And thats why I cnt sleep
