

Screwtape (feat. Ryan Clark)

Living Sacrifice

Just a fascination of what lies beyond
A life that's free
Under my responsibility
My greatness is wide
Love of self, the lie
Curse the scrutiny
Embrace the thought inside I will, manipulate
You will capitulate
What you've given me is a path perverted
Adapted, disjointed philosophies Emotional dependence
My grasp is relentless Perfected in mind
Planted and instilled
This formation of a dark temptation
The ease of it all
Disease enthralled
This fantastic dream
Subject to a darker scheme I will manipulate
You will capitulate
What you've given me is a path perverted
Adapted, disjointed philosophies Emotional dependence
My grasp is relentless Your love becomes inverted
A path becomes perverted
I watched them drown
Under a clear blue sky
Weighted with guilt
I watched them die
