Terrible Things

Brick + Mortar

Deep in my sleep (give it up, give it up now). (x2)I don't, I don't, I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't know why but I can see you far away
As you grow and change and I stay the same but.But, I'm just like you
I've got, got no name at all
The whole world against you
You give everythingSometimes I think of doing terrible things
I know I shouldn't think it but I do anyway, oh oh
Maybe I'm just crazy like I got a disease
Feels like I got things that go deep in my sleep
I'm doing terrible things
Give it up, give it up now
I'm t-t-terrible things
Give it up, give it up nowIn the sky in my mind between my eyes within my eyes
I don't know why but can you feel me melt away
As the colors seem to fade and save the day but.Well I, I'm just like you
I've got, got no name at all
The whole world against you
You did everything (deep in my sleep)Sometimes I think of doing terrible things
I know I shouldn't think it but I do anyway, oh oh
Maybe I'm just crazy like I got a disease
Feels like I got things that go deep in my sleep
I'm doing terrible things, t-t-t-terrible thingsEverything you need, everything you need
Give it up, give it up now
It's bigger than your dreams, bigger than your dreams
Give it up, give it up now
I had a dream so far away, I had a dream so far away
I had a dream though.Sometimes I think of doing terrible things
I know I shouldn't think it but I do anyway, oh oh
Maybe I'm just crazy like I got a disease
Feels like I got things that go deep in my sleepT-t-t-terrible things
Give it up, give it up now
