Nervous Breakthrough

Luscious Jackson

Sometimes, somebody can bring you down so far
Below anywhere you've gone
Sometimes, somebody can bring you down so far
Below anywhere you know
So much, so fast feels like you can't take the pain
But remember there's no going back
Something's so broken down, busted and underground
But here's your chance to surrender
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Lay down your gun, lay down your pack
It's time to recognize the fact
That all the best things make you nervous
And all the best things come in disguise
So much, so fast feels like you can't take the pain
But remember there's no going back
Something's so broken down, busted and underground
But here's your chance to surrender
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
(Thanks to you)
Did you know that we were down to the ground
Came to tell I'm happy that I found
(Thanks to you)
Thanks to you about music in your soul
Thanks to you I'm letting everybody know
(Thanks to you)
It's the thing that creeps into your feet
It's the thing that flows into the beat
(Thanks to you)
I was off kilter, now I got shelter
Thanks to you, I'm gonna breakthrough
Thanks to you
Thanks to you
Thanks to you

Thanks to you
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you, I had a nervous breakthrough
Thanks to you
Thanks to you
Thanks to you
Thanks to you
Thanks to you
