

No One

Stupid

I don't need any thing, not no one, no one.
I don't need any thing, not no one, no one.

So if you come tonight, don't think that I might answer.
Or when you say good bye no it won't really matter,
For I put you out to see again, go!

No where, no one.
No where, no one.

I don't need any place, not no one, no one.
I don't need any place, not no one, no one.

So if I run away, I guess you'll never know if I'm okay.
When I'm beating down, you're not the one who'd stick around.
I'd scratch out both my eyes before I'd let you see me cry.
I put this spell on you.
You're not allowed to say we're through 'til I decide.
And you will say, "Don't break me out to see again!"

Go!

No where, no one, go!
No where, no one, go!
