Harvey Danger

Here's something beautiful now smash it to bits
Save your little wheelchair, empowerment films
Save your swoons, I'm spoken for
It isn't pretty to think so but I can't feign interest now, ohDreamin' of the fistfight I never got into Thinking of the mean shit, I wish I'd said to you
Such a fancy lady, call you Secretina
She didn't get all the good stuff but she looked like youLike a zero drowning in a sea of higher numbers
Everything you say to me is dumb, at least it's stupidTwenty heavy hammers smashin' down
Here's a doorstep you can never darken
You complain about an overflowing cup
Don't forget that I'm the one who filled that fucker up
One two threeLike a zero drowning in a sea of higher numbers
I remain as ever intrigued but no more astounded
Like a zero drowning in a sea of higher numbers
I think that I like you better when you just ignore meSo I sit and notice shadows growing
I think of how the clocks are slowing
Hoping hope's eternal flowing springs will do their thing
Do their thing, do their thing and save me from myselfLike a zero drowning in a sea of higher numbers
I remain as ever intrigued but no more astounded
Like a zero drowning in a sea of higher numbers
You want ego? I will show you ego, I am jealous now
