

The State of Mind

Caveman

Waiting for the moment when the moment has been waiting all the time

Staring at the golden heights, wondering are you ready for the climb

Are you ready for this?

If you're ready to believe it, treasure you'll find

Are you ready for that?

Don't mistake the chance, focus your eyes

Will you take the chance?

When you're ready to receive it, fear's left behind

Well you've got the time?

A new perspective

A new state of mind

Always on the edge of what could be the greatest moment in this life

Watching as the theme builds, left only to wonder in delight

You've got to let it go

You've got to let yourself believe in all that can be

Wanting to feel

Wanting to feel just what it means to be free

There's no reason for deceiving

There's no reason for deceiving, focus your eyes

To a new perspective

A new state of mind Sometimes you feel you want to run away from it all

Sometimes you hear the voices of the past come to call

But there's no giving up when you are giving it your all

Hoping, forgiving and loving, the qualities of life

Designing the future we're building, the dreams taking flight

Are you ready for love?

A new state of mind

Waiting for the moment when the moment has been waiting all the time

Reaching for the golden heights without a doubt you're ready for the climb

You've got to set it out

You've got to set yourself believing and fortunes you'll find

No escaping

No escaping once you've made up your mind

There's a reason for your being

There's a reason for your being, focus your eyes

To a new perspective

A new state of mind
