At the Very Mention of Your Name

Gilbert O'Sullivan

At the very mention of your name get shivers down my back and in my brain the parts that used to function normally are now as you can see acting very strange oh at the very mention of your name don't know why but if I were tied up in chains I would somehow be released all problems too would cease my heart would never feel no pain at the very mention of your nameAt the very moment you arrive I stop living and I start to feel alive you have the power that's taken over me led me to believe call it what you like at the very moment you arrive I suspect that I will pinch myself to find that it really isn't true it really can't be you walking up the garden drive at the very moment you arriveAnd although it's been said well over a thousand times here's a thousand more will you still be mine forever and evermoreAt the very mention of your name what am I to do and who am I to blame the effect upon my life can only be described a bit like being hit my a train
at the very mention of your name
