

Hands On the Wheel

China Crisis

Keep your hands on the wheel boy
Tell me all that you feel boy
All that you're feeling inside
I don't want to have to wake up
Just to find out that I'm breaking up
Find out that I'm breaking up inside
It's all in the past now
Nothing's ever gonna last now
Nothing's ever meant last now
I've got my hands tied together
Just keeping in the rainy weather
Keeping in the rainy weather inside
I don't wanna have to grow old
No, I don't wanna have to be told
I don't wanna have to unfold my life
It's all in the past now
Nothing's ever gonna last now
Nothing's ever meant last now
