Everything That You Are

Priestess

Lights out in your room
Lights out in your car (you gotta hit the ground running)
Lights out in the streets where I walked
To carry you home (and theres no way out)
I know you fell asleep, pray you dont fall asleep where you are (now youre all alone)
I know you were led by a dark handAnd Ill wait for the morning
Ill trade in all the blood
For everything that you areWhat I found is the truth
What I found is enough (you gotta keep on running)
What I found in the room was my love
All eaten up (and youre all alone)
I know that you escaped, Cenobites sound the alarm (and theres no way out)
I know you were led by a dark handLights out in your room
Lights out in the sky (you gotta hit the ground running)
Lights out in the head that you wore
As a disguise (and then youll die alone)
I know they took you back, spitting out chains from the wall (you know theres no way out)
I know you were led by a dark hand
