

Spanish Radio (For Bass Players)

Biffy Clyro

I'm gonna walk to the water's edge
Refuse to be cleansed but struggle in
Your crown don't fit so vacate the throne
And off with your head, I need a shoulder to cry on I got a heart, I got a reason
To love you all, every single person
It's not at all our conversation,
I'm looking for total dislocation I always wake to the sound of your voice
And I am floating on an ominous cloud
This dark land looming over the hill
Maintain a holy stance and protect your children I got a heart, I got a reason
To love you all, every single person
It's not at all our conversation,
I'm looking for total dislocation I got a tree, it's time to cut it
To it's knees, don't wanna rush it
We got to please, we have to glisten
As I remain in splendid isolation I got a heart, I got a reason
To love you all, every single person
It's not at all our conversation,
I'm looking for total dislocation I got a tree, it's time to cut it
To it's knees, don't wanna rush it
We got to please, we have to glisten
As I remain in splendid isolation Hey, you can be lost at the same time as being found
Hey, you can be lost at the same time as being found
