

Everything I Miss at Home

Will Downing

You give me attention
You're someone who understands my needs
Someone who is sensitive
Everything I miss at home
You know how to hold me
And do all the things I want to feel
Inside of each tender kiss
Everything I miss at home I was just out on the town
In search of some fun
Wasn't looking for love
Then you came along and shared with me
All the things I miss at home
You give me attention
You're someone who understands my needs
Someone who is sensitive
You give me everything I miss at home
You know how to hold me
And do all the things I want to feel
Inside of each tender kiss
Everything I miss at home Oh, yes I do love someone
But I can't pretend to be the happy one
I've taken for granted
I was lonely, but you were there for me
You give me attention
You're someone who understands my needs
Someone who is sensitive
You give me everything I miss at home
You know how to hold me
And do all the things I want to feel
Inside of each tender kiss
Everything I miss at home It's been a long time
Since I had some real loving
Someone to stimulate my mind
You give me, you give me
You give me everything I miss at home
Home is where heart is baby
Home is where you let your feelings flow
You give me everything I miss at home
