

Last Rites

Mercyful Fate

I'm surrounded by darkness, I'm dying in my bed
I don't know if I'm going to survive
I open up my eyes but it's so hard to see
My last ritesI don't believe in Heaven
I don't believe in Hell
So save your God for someone else
Or save Him for yourselfIn a flick of a second I think I saw a priest
Listening to my breathing getting weaker all the time
He's mumbling words, I do not understand
My last ritesI don't believe in Heaven
I don't believe in Hell
So save your God for someone else
Or save Him for yourselfFeeling colder, feeling low
My blood still running but running slowOh no, I don't need no priest of yours, oh Christ
I won't listen to another word from you
Here I am dying and you act the foolI wish you'd come a little closer
So I can reach your cross and end your prayer hereI don't believe in Heaven
I don't believe in Hell
So save your God for someone else
Or save Him for yourself
