Disgusting

Miranda Cosgrove

My heart goes at the speed of light
But the exit sign's always on my mind, always in my sight
I can say that I really want to stay
But the devil inside always wins the fight, always gets his way
Jump out the window, gotta get out on the highway
When things are getting too attached, I need an escape
I'm seeing stars and there is nothing more that I hate, baby
There is something that I gotta say
It's disgusting how I love you
I can't take it, I should hate you
'Cause you're messing up my name
Gotta walk my talk, my fame
But I just want to touch your face, it's disgusting
It's disgusting how you changed me
From a bandit to a baby
Think I might gotta change my name
If I'm gonna walk this walk of shame
Look at what you do to me, it's disgusting
My mind blinks like a traffic light
It's green and red and stop and go, changing all the time
And it makes me scared that I haven't left
And I'm still right here more, more, more or less
Jump out in traffic, yeah, I gotta go my own way
My heart is slipping, too intense, I need an escape
I'm seeing stars and there is nothing more that I hate
Baby, there's something that I gotta say
It's disgusting how I love you
I can't take it, I should hate you
'Cause you're messing up my name
Gotta walk my talk, my fame
But I just want to touch your face, it's disgusting
It's disgusting how you changed me
From a bandit to a baby
Think I might gotta change my name
If I'm gonna walk this walk of shame
Look at what you do to me, it's disgusting
It's disgusting, disgusting
Chapter by chapter, I'm falling faster and faster
Becoming manic, the magic, it's so romantic, I panic, oh

Hit the eject button but it must be stuck, something's up
I'm drifting out right over the drink, baby
It's disgusting how I love you
I can't take it, I should hate you
'Cause you're messing up my name
Gotta walk my talk, my fame
But I just want to touch your face, it's disgusting
It's disgusting how you changed me
From a bandit to a baby
Think I might gotta change my name
If I'm gonna walk this walk of shame
Look at what you do to me, it's disgusting
Look at what you do to me, it's disgusting
