Lessons Learned

Matt & Kim

Tape holds things that cannot stick
And keep leftovers in the fridge
While lessons learned go down the drain
I can't believe everythingAnd all the bad names gone
And the good ones were all wrongAnd so I stayed up all night
Slept in all day, this is my sound
Thinking about tomorrow
Won't change how I feel todayNever let your mark erase
'Cause broken legs can be replaced
Two steps to the finish line
Three sips till I finish mineA straw will always suck it out
Close your eyes and use your mouth
And tell me about your songAnd so I stayed up night
Slept in all day, this is my sound
Thinking about tomorrow
Won't change how I feel today
