

Fade to Black (Stripped) [Lost Recording #2]

Mark Diamond

You're just a runaway i can't wait for you to come back I've gotta wait the memories fade to black

I've been sleeping in my own bed you've been on the run running from everyone if you just listen to a word I said you'd be here instead I pick up the phone you say you feel alone I can't always be there when you run back home

You're just a runaway i can't wait for you to come back I've gotta wait the memories fade to black

You started painting up your lips red
Now I can see it the keeping secrets
I heard every single word you said
Is that what you meant
Were have you been
Where did you go
Where are you know if your not who I know

You're just a runaway i can't wait for you to come back I've gotta wait the memories fade to black

And oh those lips you hide behind
You can't look me in the eye
You keep running on running from your lies

You're just a runaway i can't wait for you to come back I've gotta wait the memories fade to black

Repeats Æ—3

Lyrics Submitted by Will Miles

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>