

Nutty Theme

Madness

Hello, good evening and welcome
I've been down the high road towards the crossroads
To hear the sound that's buggin' me
Catchy little rhythms in music and rhyme
It's that nutty sound you see
Rhythm As I got nearer I heard it clearer it started to affect my brain
It's that nutty rhythm that gets you thinking you're almost going insane
I felt the ground shake
I had a feeling I was sitting on an old steam train
Shaking in me knee bones and me elbows
It's driving me around the bend
Uncontrollable feelings sends me reeling
There's no need to pretend
Melody It had me spell bound, span me head round
I could feel myself going mad
Now I am an addict, I have to hear it
Everything else sounds bad
