

Love Will Save Your Soul

Grouplove

Walking down the street, man you're so bold (So bold)

Seen your mom and dad and they're so cold (So cold)

Love will save your soul

Of feeling so alone and growing old

Come on up the stairs, man you got sold

Lost my train of thought and now I'm told

That love will save your soul

Of feeling so alone and growing old

Love, love, love,

Yeah love, love, love

(?) hunts for gold

Teachers cracking rules and now parole

Love will save your soul

Of feeling so alone and growing old

Love, love, love

Yeah, love, love, love

Love will always save your soul (Your soul)

Love will always save your soul (Your soul)

Love will save your soul

Love will save your soul

Love will always save your soul

Love will always save your soul

Love will save your soul

Love will save your soul

Love will always save your soul

Love will always save your soul

Love will save your soul

Love will save your soul
