Irresistible

The Harbor

How great your love
oh, it's more than enough
When I was on the run you never give up

Even when I run away even when I don't wanna stay, it's there

I feel you drag me out of the ocean into the shoreline
I feel you drag me out of the ocean into the shoreline

I was so lost but you covered the cost of my soul, well now i know

I could never run away from you my soul's too thirsty searching for the truth

I feel you drag me out of the ocean into the shoreline
I feel you drag me out of the ocean into the shoreline

Draw me closer, take me further
Into your love, my soul murmurs

Draw me closer, take me further
Into your love, my soul murmurs

I need your grace
I need your grace
I need your grace
I need your graceï»¿
