

Time to Waste

Alkaline Trio

There's someone down below
Blowing you a kiss
They watch from their windowsAs all arms fall to their sides
And all eyes fix
On the death of tomorrowAnd you found everything you need
To make a life complete
Completely revoltingAnd they have safety and relief
For sale on the street
I see you in line every dayYou had time to waste
And I'm not sorry
Such a basket case
Hide the cutleryI had time to kill
It's dead and buried
You've got guts to spill
But no one trust-worthyThese creatures are waking up
In these dark trees
Waiting like vulturesAnd eyes roll back
Turn white in time to feed
They salivate in hunger for youAnd everything they need
To make a death complete
Completely unnaturalAnd salvation lies
Behind those dead eyes
That watch you while you sleep every night andYou had time to waste
And I'm not sorry
Such a basket case
Hide the cutleryI had time to kill
It's dead and buried
You've got guts to spill
But no one trust-worthyYou had time to waste
And I'm not sorry
Such a basket case
Hide the cutleryI had time to kill
It's dead and buried
You've got guts to spill
But no one trust-worthy
