Divided We Stand

Zonata

Morphed by fear, a mask to wear
But all must carry on Desperate fights for the final light
The last straw to be drawn
Disbelieve or contribute
Revaluate your soul
A radical way to live
That undivides our rulesOpen up your eyes and see the mirror of your life. Hunted every moment by the phantoms in the nightBow down ,time has been tolled
Rise now ,to remainThe chains of dawn will reveal
The truth and what to come
Systematized synchronized
Life is on the hold
Faith by night a shallow light
Our innocence will guide
And silent saved from decay
We rearrange our waysOpen up your eye and see the mirror of your life Hunted every moment by the phantoms in the nightBow down ,time has been tolled Rise now ,to remain
