Start a War

Kody West

Start a war inside my head.
Deepest blows of words you said.
Out of time, come to the end of the line
Start a war inside my head.

Break my heart from across the room.
Shadows dance, you left too soon.
Lost my nerve, along with all my words.
Break my heart from across the room.

Chorus:
Please believe, I was fine before I saw you
Rescue me, from the darkness that Iâ€™m falling through
Can you see past all my mistakes?
Oh my body aches.

Make me doubt my every move,
Every bet Iâ€™m bound to lose.
Roll the dice, donâ€™t bother thinking twice
Make me doubt my every move.

Chorus:
Please believe I was fine before I saw you,
Rescue me from the darkness that Iâ€™m falling through
Can you see, Iâ€™m past all my mistakes
Oh my body aches.

Oh my body aches

Chorus:
Please believe I was fine before I saw you,
Rescue me from the darkness that Iâ€™m falling through
Can you see past all my mistakes?
Oh my body aches.

Start a war inside my head.
