

Past Remains

Side Walk Slam

I think about you at least twice a day
I try not to let those memories fade away
The memories of you that linger in mind
I'll try to hold on until the end of timeDon't fade away
Don't fade awayI'm so nervous now 'cause you figured out
These feelings I have from the inside and out
Please don't be afraid if feelings remain
Just let them work out and let love lead its wayDon't fade away
Don't fade away
