

I Can Do No Wrong

American Wrestlers

Feels much better now I've the life I was due
No more disorder in your opposing view
Looks deceiving, premonitions, I've got mine
A hundred hearings, see me smiling every time
Now that I can do no wrong

Lately

But I could do no wrong

Then

And I'll save you from reason

The smell of sulfur

Yeah I can do no wrong Feels much better now I've the life I was due

Sunday's soldiers laid out, now I can't lose

And in your fading, prearranged and made up mind

Everything's the cure, nothing is the crime Nobody hates my term cause I'm so young and nobody hates my term

I can't wait my turn cause I'm not young and I can't wait my turn
