

She's Alone

The Subdudes

Yeah, yeah, yeah
She had what I desire, her love
Wild as fire yeah, yeah
Wonder what secrets a woman keeps inside
Cast a mighty spell on this mans eyes See her standing in the light
Shes confused often at night
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
Yeah, yeah And why truly should I try to possess her
When she should be flying so high?
When the wine is right there in your cup, yeah
What fool would refuse to drink it up See her standing in the light
Shes confused often at night
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there See her standing in the light
Shes confused often at night
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
All I see is the color of her hair
Shes alone when theres ten thousand there
Yeah, yeah Shes alone, shes alone, shes alone
Shes alone, shes alone
Shes alone, shes alone, shes alone
Shes alone, shes alone
