

Lucky Ones

Kevin Drew

Well, every time they took me to the rise of your bed
You know what kind of doing at the top of your head
But all the little words that came down like a spider
Trickle through the morpheme try to make them cry I'm in respect to suggest that we're through
You don't know I could live without you if you do
But tell me that the temperature's rising in your head
Tell me that the blood is not to be misled All of these little boys coming through the cracks
Trying to pick up these worms on the side
I could see the broken fences lying down in the yard
Green like your mom instead that never was retired I know, I know, I know soon
All the things you thought about what you could do
When the clouds separated, in comes the sun
Heard it through a song that a girl once sung She's the reason why I'm trying to make it alright
Trying to drive through, girl, wish it tonight
Rolling on the side with the moon in my hand
Trying to be a stereotype with a friend But my love is gone and my God is low
That's why I'm doing all the things of the above
Don't you expect to make a phone call tonight
Treat me like a motherfucker who is right Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one Every time a creature comes into my past
I know you should snigger about things that we laughed
How I've got a cause that never met a man
Took a talk to him and tried to make him my friend But you can see that I'm just coming out through the glass
Everyone speaks about something the past took
But I came beside with it, I could believe
Take me to your bed and show me some trees But I can bet a fuck, will do the whole
Try to tell you that there's nowhere to roam
You're like a brother who thinks I won't care
I'm ready to tell you that you are not misled Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one
Ooh, I know we're gonna need a lucky one

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>