Wherever You Go

Sygnature

Oh, no, no
I was looking for love
And I couldn't find it because
You were staring me in my eyes
But I didn't realize
Just what you knew all the time
I was yours, and you were mine
And now I finally see the signs
I'm all yours, baby be mine[1] - Wherever you go
I will follow
Whenever you cry
I'll dry your eyes
Wherever you go
I will follow
I will always be
Right by your sideIt doesn't even matter
How long it takes
True love will stand the test of time
No matter how many mistakes we make
Cupid knew just who to shoot
When he pointed his arrow at me and you
I just want to let it be known
I l-o-v-e you, today, today, today, today[Repeat 1]Hmm just put your heart in mine
(L-o-v-e you)
And baby take your time
(L-o-v-e you)
I wanna spend my life
(L-o-v-e you)
I want you for my wife[Repeat 1 till end]
