In The Moment

Mint Condition

[Chorus]Hey, we just got inside the moment
Hey, and we knew the cost could possibly be high
Hey, yeah, I know we caught a feeling
Hey, but this just ain?t the time.
[Verse 1]Hey, girl I know you?re in with somebody new now
Because true friends are always first to know
And it feels so good, that you have one who loves you
Like a lover, lover
But a remark you made, got us both to thinking
Now we wonder why, we never loved at all
I wish this was, some kind of illusion
But it?s real, and we both know to not come any closer
[Chorus][Verse 2}
Thinking what a time, to question what we?re feeling

I figure why, ask you why, Cause we've got history
Being the best of friends, a rare combination
Boy and girl, never cross the line
Hypothetical, if we're preparing to do it
Would it be enough, to build on what we?ve got
Is it a lifetime chance, or a chance to mess your life up
I think we should stay in our mind
[Chorus][Bridge]If we don?t shake it, try to shake away the feeling
There will be no way, to make it possible for healing, yeah
Get on, move on, back up, screaming in my mind...
Get on, move on, back up, before we do the crime.
[Chorus 2xs][Vamp]
Whoa oh, oh, ooh_____ oh, oh, oh. Ooh_____. [Rep 4x]
{Instrumental outro}
