

Cake

Idina Menzel

One man's trauma is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
I'm another man's cake Listen up
I can thank you for
For believing I was trouble
I can thank you for the bitterness you showed me
I can thank you for the freedom I didn't ask for Roses, and thorns, stealing my smile One man's trauma is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake
Yeah, I'm another man's cake See he treats me like
I'm a beautiful disaster
And he treats me like I'm all he's ever asked for Beauty's in the eyes
The eyes of the beholder
Silver linings and everything I'm after One man's trauma is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake I'm another man's cake
I'm hard to handle well
It's not a crime
I'm hard at handling a state of mind
To each his own and he
He thinks I'm fine Baby let's face it I've wasted your time
One man's trauma is another man's dream
One man's torture is another man's treat
One man's trophy is another's mistake
One man's poison is another man's cake I'm another man's cake
I'm another man
I'm another's cake
I'm another's cake
