No One Has

Mudhoney

I've been so close to no way out
I don't lock the door no more
I've been so close to no way out
I don't lock the door no more
NoLost my mind about a million times
Still ain't sure what I'm looking for
Must've lost my mind at least a million times
Still ain't sure what I'm looking for
NoI ain't looking for the easy way
And I'm not looking to lose my self
I ain't looking for the easy way
And I'm not looking to lose my self
NoI'm looking for something
No one seems to have
I'm looking, looking, yeah
For something no one seems to have
I keep looking everywhere
No one I know has
I keep looking, yeah
No one, no one has
No one, no one has
I keep looking anyway
No one, no one has
