Behemoth

(Music by Nergal, lyrics by Nergal)I've met in surrounding me nature Spirits and deities wielding the element In a field, in a forest, in rocks and caves and I won their goodwill with sacrifices Horses carried me to the skies White, beautiful steeds... beloved I was attacking brushwood violently
I touched motherlandPERCUS! Magic circles and black stones PERCUS! Forest spells and damned souls PERCUS! I find worship in you PERCUS!!!They will return, dance like fire, as before They will return, to the trees to the forest of mine... to the kingdom!The thunderer demons guards of sacred spot during those cold nights they found peace and consolationBetween the gates of Pomeranian kingdom of magic They will reign again the thrones of mighty fatherland!I rediscover their power and charm
To defeat like a sorcerer Like thousand years ago oaken castles from millennium before They will rise once again...as a sign...
PERCUS!
