She Doesn't Need Me Anymore

Peter Cetera

Don't know when she started changing
Don't know how it's come to this
Seems like yesterday she was in my arms
Begging for a kiss
Now the winds of change are blowin'
And they're taking her away
I will do my best not to hold her back
But there's nothing more to say
She doesn't need me, she's gonna leave me
She needs some time on her own
I should have told her, now I can't hold her
Wish it could be like before
But she doesn't need me anymore
It's so hard to watch believe me
It's so hard to be alone
I just hope and pray that there'll come a day
She'll find the road back home
She doesn't need me, she's gonna leave me
She needs some time on her own
I should have told her, now I can't hold her
Wish it could be like before
But she doesn't need me anymore
If I pretend to be happy, I'd only be fooling myself
'Cause here in my heart I know that I'm dying
And it's tearing me apart, baby, I'm crying
I should have told her, now I can't hold her
(Should have told her)
Wish it could be like before
But she doesn't need me now
Wish it could be like before
But she doesn't need me anymore
She doesn't need me now
She doesn't need me now
She doesn't need me now
She doesn't need me now
She doesn't need me now
