

Kids In Love

Ruth Barrett

I look back to the one and only summertime
When my girl was the envy of every friend of mine
 She slept safely in my arms
 We were so young and invincible
 Closed lips, she was never one to kiss and tell
 Those trips in the summer never went so well
 Young love is such dumb love
 Call it what you want, it was still enough
 And you're still out of my reach
 And you're still all of the things that I want in my life
 How could I ask you to leave me?
 And we were just kids in love
 The summer was full of mistakes we wouldn't learn from
 The first kiss stole the breath from my lips
 Why did the last one tear us apart?
 Our breath smelled of cigarettes and alcohol
 We'd walk down the beach, counting every star
 Our hearts beat inside our chests
 Leaving us gasping for every breath
 Her smile with the wind blowing through her hair
 Was so contagious in the air
 So satisfying and I'm still smiling
 And you're still out of my reach

And you're still all of the things that I want in my life
 How could I ask you to leave me?
 And we were just kids in love
 The summer was full of mistakes we wouldn't learn from
 The first kiss stole the breath from my lips
 Why did the last one tear us apart?
 We're falling down, can we pick up the pieces?
 We're at an all time low, how do we get it back?
 We're falling down, can we pick up the pieces?
 We're falling down, can we pick up the pieces now?
 And we were just kids in love
 The summer was full of mistakes we wouldn't learn from
 The first kiss stole the breath from my lips
 Why did the last one tear us?
 We were just kids in love

The summer was full of mistakes we wouldn't learn from
The first kiss stole the breath from my lips
Why did the last one tear us apart?
We were just kids in love
The summer was full of mistakes we wouldn't learn from
The first kiss stole the breath from my lips
Why did the last one tear us apart?
