

Sunday Drive

Eric Darken

Honey, want to see
What you, what you can be
    You, you make it easy
For me to want to know you
    I can't pretend to hate you
Cause I will always love you
And when you try to leave me
    I wanna say
        Please don't go
        I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
    So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
    Please don't go
        I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
    So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
    Wait, to the end
        Who will you defend?
        See what I can do
        With this life
        That was made for two
        I can't pretend to hate you
        Cause I will always love you
        And when you try to leave me
    I wanna say
        Please don't go
        I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
    So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
    Please don't go
        I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
    So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
    I can't pretend to hate you
    Cause I will always love you

And when you try to leave me
I wanna say
Please don't go
I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
Please don't go
I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
