

Lazy Crossbones

Carla Bozulich

Look through the glass
sea like diamonds
A skull and some bones always looking to the next sea shore
Lazy crossbones waving to the shore
Yes, we've been here before
Hey, hey, it's a parade!
I brought her garnet gleams
She brought me secret things
We laughed and the lights explode
Hey, hey, it's a parade!
With your pirate flag
And your eyes of golden brown
Hey, hey, it's a parade!
The sun is going down
In your eyes of golden brown
Badadadada Badadadada
Badadadada Badadada Badadadada Badadadada
Maybe it's the fever, maybe I'm not real
Oh, or too much sun, I just want to feel your skin
Let's move this part of my shot heart
Lazy crossbones, bringing me home
Flying skull bones, there's a party going on Whippee ay yay!
One million strong!
See my face...
Hey, hey, it's the parade!
With a fiery flag and your eyes of golden brown
Going through the town
The baby blinks and her eyes are golden brown
Badadadada Badadadada
Badadadada Badadada Badadadada Badadadada
Eyes golden brown
