

Every Time It Rains

Pinmonkey

Well your restless soul, has won over your heart
You're bound to go, I already know
You think it's always sunny, on the other side of that hill
But you're gonna miss me, I know you will'Cause nobody's gonna love you
    Nobody's gonna love you like me
    And when the rain drops fall
    That'll be the tears I'm cryin'
    And when the lightnin' strikes
    Well that'll be my poor heart dyin'
    And when the thunder rolls
    That's just me callin' your name
    You're gonna' miss me
Every time it rainsI won't try to hold you, if you don't wanna stay
    Yeah I'll get blue, but baby so will you
When your ramblin' days are over, and you feel a lonesome chill
You're gonna miss me, how I know you will'Cause nobody's gonna love you
    Nobody's gonna love you like me
    And when the rain drops fall
    That'll be the tears I'm cryin'
    And when the lightnin' strikes
    Well that'll be my poor heart dyin'
    And when the thunder rolls
    That's just me callin' your name
    You're gonna miss me
Every time it rainsHey when the rain drops fall
    That'll be the tears I'm cryin'
    And when the lightnin' strikes
    Well that'll be my poor heart dyin'
    And when the thunder rolls
    That's just me callin' your name
    You're gonna miss me
    Every time it rains
    Yeah you're gonna miss me
Every time it rains, every time it rains
