Make Believe

Matthew Sweet

Everything is perfect in a way but not today
What could tomorrow bring?
When I beg you will you please be good to me?
You're running freeJust make believe you love me
And I'll try harder than before
'Cause it's a real love
That keeps us coming back for moreIf anything I question can be used against my will
And it will be 'til you understand the question
Is a cup that can't be filled by what you feelI'll make believe I love you
And I'll try harder than before
'Cause it's a real love
That keeps us coming back for more
