

I'll Get You Back

Funky Collector 07

Why couldn't I hear the sound of your heart breakin'
Why couldn't I see the mistakes I was makin'
Why didn't I feel the distance in your kiss
Well, I can't let you get away with leavin' me like this I'll get you back, this ain't over yet
Don't know what I'll do but I'll think of somethin'
I'll get you back, you're gonna get
All the love that you've got comin'
And I won't give up until I prove
My heart and soul belong to you
Whatever it takes, I'll get you back Now I'm gonna be the man you've always dreamed of Love's the only thing I'll let come between us
You still ain't got the best of me
I'll show you my love is true just you wait and see I'll get you back, this ain't over yet
Don't know what I'll do but I'll think of somethin'
I'll get you back, you're gonna get
All the love that you've got comin'
I won't give up until I prove
My heart and soul belong to you
Whatever it takes, I'll get you back
Whatever it takes, I'll get you back
