My God Is A Reasonable Man

Alexisonfire

I don't care, I won't preach it
My God is a reasonable man
You preach the facts of sacred prayers
But you're a terrorist of bigotry
Fueled by text that was written
In dead languages and different times
I don't care, I won't preach it
My God is a reasonable man
I don't care, I won't preach it
My God is a reasonable man
I don't care, I won't preach it
My God is a reasonable man
And your justice and your lifestyle
My God is a reasonable man
And your faith doesn't speak for us all
'Cause my God is a reasonable man
It's time to separate faith and politics
It's time to realize that in ten years' time
This song will be all that's left of me
And this song won't need to be sung
Your problem is that you think it's no use
And swimming in another Christian world
Now you have the balls, so show the power
So why's the shit back in human rights?
Get what? Get back
My God is a reasonable man
Get what? Get back
My God is a reasonable man
Our hands again
They will get sick, all with your politics
By mixing god this city war
You take all of your convictions to the morgue
Get what? Get back
Get what? Get back
My God is a reasonable man
Get what? Get back
My God is a reasonable man

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/