Nice To Feel The Sun

Earshot

Sometimes I feel as though my life's getting stranger
Now I need to find a way, to get this strain off of my back
Sometimes we need to lock the door and throw away the key
Sometimes we need to learn to let beYeah, it's nice to feel the sun
Yeah, it's nice to feel the sunSo I awake to find that, I'm in no danger
I finally found the strength I need still, spinning on my back
And now I feel the sun, shining down on me
Sometimes we have to live and be freeYeah, it's nice to feel the sun
Yeah, it's nice to feel the sunFor days now I've, waited for the light to shine
Shine down on meYeah, it's nice to feel the sun
Yeah, it's nice to feel the sun
