Blind Faith

Levellers

A hollow heart and empty head make the streets run red a careless desire leaves a child a future of fire
but you don't care
how could you careBlind Faith It'll be okay
Everybody tells you so
Don't look it'll go away
Everybody tells you so
Blind Faith It'll be okay
Everybody telling you so
Don't look it'll go away
Everybody tells you soYou lead your nation with a sword pressed to its back you mark the last page of history in black
but you don't care
how could you careBlind Faith It'll be okay
Everybody tells you so
Everybody tells you so
Blind Faith It'll be okay
Everybody telling you so
Don't look it'll go away
Everybody tells you soWhy must you poison ?
You're taking it all away
Why must you rape ?
The future this way
Now you made your Babylon, what next? should only take you 7 days to fix the mess you don't care how could you care
