Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Through waves they shift
Below they hide
Corporate killers
Side by side Process this signal
Final post
Global defiance
No hope for most In form of liquid
Sliding through air
Tracking this existence
Killer hardware As the sun burns out your eyes
A new world will now arise
Out of the ashes, new life appears
A final conquest without any tears Massive violence
The slaughter begins
Future collisions
This nightmare now begins Lying faces
Bastards are cold
Self-annihilation
This feeling's growing old As the sun burns out your eyes
A new world will now arise
Out of the ashes, new life appears
A final conquest without any tears This burning sensation won't last long
Eternal peace, you must be strong
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
A metaphor we'll never trust Dangerous reaction
Such a self sublime
Dark disformation
The time crawls near Through waves they shift
Corporate killers
Side, side by side As the sun burns out your eyes
A new world will now arise

Out of the ashes, new life appears
A final conquest without any tears
This burning sensation won't last long
Eternal peace, you must be strong
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
A metaphor we'll never trust
A metaphor we'll never trust
This persecution
This final solution
No, no resolution
This, this persecution
This persecution
