Dirty Hands

RJD2

I dont believe in sin
And neither do you (neither do you)
I can't begin to see the thin line between what I do and you do
Fool had thought that he never need you (never need you)
Fall in the water, but you'll go up faster than we could have ever knew
Caught between what I know (what I know)
What I still don't understand (understand)
Little man has got my heart (my heart)
In his dirty little hands (little hands)
Caught between what I know (what I know)
What I still don't understand (understand)
Little man has got my heart (my heart)
In his dirty little hands (little hands)
You came a boat from the sky
And entered my heart (and entered my heart)
You wiped out the memory of who I was before you were born
Focused on old man stars
You really knew (you really knew)
Cleaned out the cobwebs, turned off the lights, and left the place looking whole
Caught between what I know (what I know)
What I still don't understand (understand)
Little man has got my heart (my heart)
In his dirty little hands (little hands)
Caught between what I know (what I know)
What I still don't understand (understand)
Little man has got my heart (my heart)
In his dirty little hands (little hands)
