

Black Out The Sun

Darren Hayes

Screamin' at the sky again
I can't blame you for this, my friend
Believe in fate if it helps you
Through the day
I said wait, Where's my father?
Where's the one and only martyr?
I see heaven need you way more
More than me
So far
I have to go
The minute I started to run
So far
Why did you black out the sun?
Prayin' for another day
My decisions have cost me faith
And all you wanted from me
Was goodbye

I can't take this, my father
You're my one and only answer
For the selfish man
That I'm sending out the door?
So far
I have to go
The minute I started to run
So far
Why did you black out the sun?
So far
I have to go
The minute I started to run
So far
Why did you black out the sun?
So far
I have to go
The minute I started to run
So far
Why did you black out the sun?
