Heartbeat (Bleach 99)

Bleach

It's been a long long time since
Since I spent some time with you
I'm seeing lonely moments, seeing lonely truth
Some distant song has come to meAnd now I find I'm missing
That old familiar tune
The song your heart has played me
A rhythm, I once knewSo lay me down
At your feet
And sing the words
That you know I need'Cause I'm here, I want to hear your heartbeat
Please put your love around me and just let me know
That you're here, now I'm at arms reach from you
From the lover of my soulAnd so now I fight the currents
I fight the under toe
Help me swim away from
Where my weakness growsAnd lay me down
At your feet
And sing the words
That you know I needI'm here, I want to hear your heartbeat
Please put your love around me and just let me know
That you're here, now I'm at arms reach from you
From the lover of my soul, you're the lover of my soulI'm here, I want to hear your heartbeat
Please put your love around me and just let me know
That you're here, now I'm at arms reach from you
From the lover of my soul, you're the lover of my soul
