

My Own Way

Drowning Pool

We all do what we gotta do
Just to get by, just to get by
Don't point your finger
If we wanna get loose or a little high
We run, run, run around, run the race
Just to pay these dues, just to pay that price, yeah
But I think that everyone's entitled to their vices
Call it what you want, anyway it's the same
Now come on, cause I'm already gone
A heartbeat away, one last breath
I got my own way
Ruin and disarray
Better believe what I say
I got my own way
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Life's a bitch and then you die
That's what they say, that's what they say-ey
Don't frown and look down
If we wanna fight, or we wanna play
Fuck fate, it sucks, I make my own luck
And it's always my design and
It looks like you're the one just waiting till you die, yeah
Call it what you want, anyway it's the same
Now come on, cause I'm already gone
A heartbeat away, one last breath
I got my own way
Ruin and disarray
Better believe what I say
I got my own way
Again, again
I got my own way
Ruin and disarray
Now never mind what you say
I got my own way
Hey, hey, hey, hey
I'm never right, I'm always wrong
But I finally found where I belong
My hell is hot, I know it's true
At least I'm far away from you
Stop me if you've heard this one, don't knock it till you try it
Call it what you want, anyway it's the same
Now come on, cause I'm already gone
A heartbeat away, one last breath
I got my own way
Ruin and disarray

Better believe what I say
I got my own way
Again, again
I got my own way
Ruin and disarray
Now never mind what you say
I got my own way
Hey, hey, hey, hey I'm never right, I'm always wrong
But I finally found where I belong
My hell is hot, I know it's true
At least I'm far away from you
