Rue The Day

The Wonder Stuff

I know you won't be thinking of me now, its been years.
But I hope you change your mind when we were introduced
We both laughed cause we've been friends since long ago.
And then today, but I never thought of you a single day.
But yesterday I remembered driving with no headlights
We would tip toe out in the evening.
Never done such things before, and I have never found once thinking of you since.
I'd be lying if I said you'd make never.
Came up and I'd be thinking of just how I'd like to cash my days in now.
And all I ever do is think of yesterday.
Man its hard to stand up straight all of the time.
We tip toe down to my basement.
Every time succeeds before.
I'd drive you home for goodness sake.
I could barely stand up straight.
Oh there's a memory calling, calling way too loud and way to strong.
Twisting all the bad things into good.
I'm a lucky guy now, but I'll never know until its gone.
Yeah I'll never know it till its gone.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by MATTHEW FREDERICK BARRICK, JAMES HAMILTON LEITHAUSER, PETER M BAUER, WALTER R MARTIN, PAUL C MAROON
Lyrics Â© CHRYSALIS MUSIC GROUP, Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/